

Spring 2017 Water Seminar Series

“The Right Water for the Right use at the Right Time”

Wednesday, 3:30 – 4:30pm
Hardin Hall First Floor Auditorium
Northeast Corner of N. 33rd & Holdrege Sts., UNL East Campus, Lincoln

- Jan. 18 Christine Reed, Professor University of Nebraska-Omaha
Title: “Integrated Management Planning of Surface and Ground Water in Nebraska”
- Feb. 1 Jason White, Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station
NOTE Special Time: 2:30-3:30pm
Title: “Engineered Nanoparticles in Food: Implications for Food Safety and Consumer Health”
- Feb. 15 WILLIAMS MEMORIAL LECTURE:
Ryan Bailey, Assistant Professor, Colorado State University
Title: “Water Quality Modeling for Groundwater, Surface Water, and Watersheds: Basic Theory and Applications”
- March 1 Jerry Kenny, Platte River Recovery Implementation Program (PRRIP)
Title: “The Platte River Recovery Implementation Program: What Has Been Ahead, Accomplished, and What Remains to be Done”
- March 15 Siamak Nejati, Assistant Professor, University of Nebraska-Lincoln
Title: “Engineering Solutions for Cleaning Contaminated Water: Membranes for Membrane Distillation”
- March 22 No Seminar
- April 5 KREMER MEMORIAL LECTURE:
Menu Leddy, Principal Scientist, Orange County Water District [California]
Title: “OCWD: Groundwater Replenishment System”
- April 19 Daran Rudnick, Assistant Professor, University of Nebraska-Lincoln
Title: “Advancements in Irrigation Technology and Their Impact on Water Management”
- April 26 No Seminar Final Class Meets

For more information, please contact 402-472-3305